DEFENDANT’S MOTION TO MODIFY DISMISSAL ORDER

COMES NOW Defendant St. Louis County and asks the Court to modify the dismissal order entered in the case to reflect that costs are taxed to plaintiff. As grounds for the Motion, defendant states as follows:

1. Plaintiff filed a Stipulation for Dismissal, for the dismissal of the claims without prejudice. The stipulation provided that plaintiff would bear defendant’s taxable court costs, and that the parties would bear their own attorney’s fees.
2. This Court entered an order reflecting that the parties bear their own costs.
3. Defendant respectfully asks the Court to amend the dismissal order, and to order that costs be taxed to plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, for the above stated reasons, Defendant St. Louis County asks the Court to modify the dismissal order entered in this matter.
